Greetings fellow Signal Seeker members. Happy April to one and all. Here it is, spring is in full swing and the airplanes are buzzing. If anyone knows of any good upcoming events, please send them to the newsletter editor and we will put them in the next issue. Flyers are always welcome too.

We are in the process of deciding whether or not to have an outhouse at the field again this year. Barney is working on that. We should know by the next issue.

As always, your stories, advice or tips are welcome for publication in the newsletter. Bye for now!
